

WINTER WILDLIFE

Steve and Lynn Greenleaf were also very interested observers of the pair of eagles that have made Cold Stream their home. Steve and Lynn watched them battling ravens for their share of a fish dinner as seen in the photo to the left above.

Lorraine Ewer says an eagle has taken up residence in a tree next to her home (photo above). From there it has a bird's-eye-view of the lake perfect for spotting any little tasty tidbits that may appear. A quick swoop onto the lake is all it takes to grab a quick snack. Good work, Lorraine catching the action on film.

Leta Thompson, Rachael Keller and Sue Harvey also spent an afternoon on the Davis Road watching a pair of eagles make a meal of a fairly good-size togue. The male stood back while the female ate her fill—just the way it should be!

Eagle photos courtesy of Lorraine Ewer and Steve Greenleaf